Press Release on Questions from Fiji Times

The University does not have any agent in India or any other country recruiting students for the University. The University also does not deal with any recruiting agency in India or any other country.

As such, the University is not aware of any arrangement that recruiting agencies may have made with students from outside Fiji for study at the University.

The University also has at no time authorised anyone to place, or placed, any television advertisement to recruit students in any country outside Fiji.

Any representation made by any person or organisation to represent the University is misrepresentation.

Over the past two weeks, the University has received reports of Indian recruiting agencies attempting to bring students to Fiji. These activities have not been authorized by the University. The University has extended full co-operation to the Immigration Department to take to task any person and/or organization involved in criminal activities or in undermining Fiji's immigration laws.

Subsequent to your questions, the University has issued advisories to all students to be wary of agents purporting to represent FNU.
