

FIRE FIGHTING TEAM TRAINING

Course overview

This course has been carefully designed to train and prepare a FIRST ATTACK Fire-fighting team right within your company organisation. Beginning with a comprehensive crash course on understanding fire and its associated dangers, participants will then learn how to identify the various types of fires and take action, utilising the appropriate fire fighting tactic and the appropriate type of equipment for use in each situation. The course will also teach each participant practical operation and application of the various types of firefighting equipment installed at your premises.

Key benefits

At the end of the course, your FIRST ATTACK Fire-fighting Team will be able to:

- Understand the chemistry of combustion
- Differentiate between classifications/types of fire
- Understand extinguishing methods and equipment
- Identify specific dangers associated with initial attack fire fighting
- Understand the importance of hose care and maintenance
- Learn specific skills in donning breathing apparatus and hose running
- Tie rescue knots
- Operate fire extinguishers against various types of fires
- Instruct and operate fire hose reels and fire blankets on fires
- Run out fire hoses
- Conduct rescue using breathing apparatus and rescue lines, lift and carry
- Prepare for readiness (Always Ready)
- Understand/experience/interact with external fire wardens and fire brigade

Capabilities addressed

- Principle of Fire
- Classification of Fire
- Principle of Fire Extinguishment
- Firefighting Strategies
- Breathing Apparatus
- Waterway Equipment
- Knots and Lines

Target group

Designated company fire team:

Minimum participants 10. Maximum participants 20.

Duration

Three (3) days.

Investment

The course fee of $204.45 per participant is inclusive of course material and competency certificate valid for 2 years.

Dates	Venue	Investment
To be agreed	At your own venue	$204.45vip

Application and Further Enquiries

Commercial Training (CT) Department:

- Head Quarter – Station Officer CT on ph: 3312877 ext 138, fax: 3310621 or email: stocommercial.nfa@gmail.com
- Central – Sub Officer CT Central Eastern on ph: 3312877, fax: 3310621 or email: soctcentral.nfa@gmail.com
- West – Sub Officer CT West on ph: 666 0211, fax: 666 9113 or email: soctwest.nfa@gmail.com
- North – Sub Officer CT North on ph: 8811333, fax: 8811314 or email: soctnorth.nfa@gmail.com

NFA is the sole authority for fire safety requirements and training in accordance with the HSAW (General Workplace Conditions) Regulation 2003 – Part 9 Section 34 (4) (c).

Ministry of Education Recognition No: 8282

This training is grant claimable under the Training Productivity Authority of Fiji (TPAF).

Course overview

This Course is designed to provide appointed Fire Wardens within your organisation with the necessary knowledge and skills to prepare for and respond to emergency situations. Appointed Fire Wardens will be especially taught how to safely manage or conduct emergency evacuations. This full day course ensures your Fire Wardens are adequately trained as a core leadership team ready to command that critical first line of defence.

Key benefits

At the end of the course, participants will be able to:

- Describe the fire warden's command/reporting structure/system
- Define a fire warden's preventative role
- Identify emergency incidents that may impact the workplace
- Identify installed emergency control equipment and facilities
- Define the role of Emergency services
- Recognize the dangers of Smoke and Fire
- Develop an inhouse reporting system
- Develop and maintain building evacuation procedures
- Implement fire risk assessments
- Initiate emergency response
- Network and cultivate a relationship with NFA Fire Brigade
- Achieve HSAW Regulation 2003 Part 9 Section 34 compliance

Capabilities addressed

- Evacuation Procedure
- Fire Warden System
- Emergency Control equipment & Facilities
- Safety at Work
- Operation of Firefighting equipment
- HSAW (General Workplace Conditions) Regulation 2003 Part 9 & 10

Target group

Appointed company firewardens:

Minimum participants 10. Maximum participants 20.

Duration

One (1) day.

Investment

The course fee of $920.00 per session is inclusive of course material and competency certificate valid for 1 year.

Dates	Venue	Investment
To be agreed	At your chosen venue	$920.00vip

Application and Further Enquiries

Commercial Training (CT) Department:

- Head Quarter – Station Officer CT on ph: 3312877 ext 138, fax: 3310621 or email: stocommercial.nfa@gmail.com
- Central – Sub Officer CT Central Eastern on ph: 3312877, fax: 3310621 or email: soctcentral.nfa@gmail.com
- West – Sub Officer CT West on ph: 666 0211, fax: 666 9113 or email: soctwest.nfa@gmail.com
- North – Sub Officer CT North on ph: 8811333, fax: 8811314 or email: soctnorth.nfa@gmail.com

NFA is the sole authority for fire safety requirements and training in accordance with the HSAW (General Workplace Conditions) Regulation 2003 – Part 9 Section 34 (4) (c).

Ministry of Education Recognition No: 8282

This training is grant claimable under the Training Productivity Authority of Fiji (TPAF).

FIRE SAFETY AT WORK TRAINING

Course overview

This course is designed to assist employees identify and reduce the risk that fire presents in the workplace. The course examines the phenomenon of fire and pays particular attention to identifying fire hazards or pre-combustion risks and early detection. During the six hours of training, your staff will also learn how to recognise report and/or initiate the appropriate response in case of a fire incident.

Key benefits

At the end of the course, participants will be able to:

- Develop a greater awareness of the hazards of fire
- Understand the nature of fire and how it spreads
- Identify the dangers of Smoke and Fire
- Identify specific hazard areas and reduce hazards
- Assist fire wardens/HSAW Committee in controlling risks by minimising hazards
- Distinguish between different types of fire extinguishers and their suitability inattending to the different types of fires
- Tackle small fires
- Comply to the HSAW Regulation 2003 Part 9 (34)

Capabilities addressed

- Combustion
- Classification of Fires
- Principles of Fire Extinguishment
- Extinguishing mediums and their application
- Fire Extinguishers
- HSAW (General Workplace Conditions) Regulation 2003 Part 9

Target group

All company employees:

Minimum participants 10. Maximum participants 20.

Duration

Seven (7) hours.

Investment

The course fee of $66.45 per participant is inclusive of course material and competency certificate valid for 1 year.

Dates	Venue	Investment
To be agreed	At your chosen venue	$66.45vip

Application and Further Enquiries

Commercial Training (CT) Department:

- Head Quarter – Station Officer CT on ph: 3312877 ext 138, fax: 3310621 or email: stocommercial.nfa@gmail.com
- Central – Sub Officer CT Central Eastern on ph: 3312877, fax: 3310621 or email: soctcentral.nfa@gmail.com
- West – Sub Officer CT West on ph: 666 0211, fax: 666 9113 or email: soctwest.nfa@gmail.com
- North – Sub Officer CT North on ph: 8811333, fax: 8811314 or email: soctnorth.nfa@gmail.com

NFA is the sole authority for fire safety requirements and training in accordance with the HSAW (General Workplace Conditions) Regulation 2003 – Part 9 Section 34 (4) (c).

Ministry of Education Recognition No: 8282

This training is grant claimable under the Training Productivity Authority of Fiji (TPAF).

FIRE EVACUATION TRAINING

Course overview

This Course is designed to address perhaps the most important safety procedure when dealing with a fire incident. Our Fire Evacuation Training empowers and conditions both wardens and staff alike to remain calm and act confidently and rationally during an emergency. Fire Wardens are especially drilled and tested for competency in carrying out all their duties including of course, safely managing an emergency evacuation as per company procedures. This course serves as an important timely refresher both for Fire Wardens and staff alike.

Key benefits

At the end of the course:

- Fire Wardens will be able to effectively execute an emergency evacuation
- Company staff will be well drilled in performing an evacuation procedure
- NFA will provide an assessment and review your evacuation procedure/effectiveness submit a recommendation report for improvements
- Your company would have achieved HSAW Regulation 2003 Part 9 (34) compliance

Capabilities addressed

- Evacuation Procedure
- Fire Wardens System
- Emergency Control Equipment & Facilities
- Fire Safety at Work
- Fire Evacuation Drill Exercise
- HSAW (General Workplace Conditions) Regulation 2003 Part 9 (34)

Target group

Entire company staff:

Minimum participants 10. Maximum participants 20.

Duration

Seven (7) hours.

Investment

The course fee of $408.89 per session is inclusive of a report with participant's details, course material and a competent certificate for the work place valid for 6 months.

Other details

- A fire appliance and fire crew is available at a minimal cost to attend to the "Fire emergency" in order to simulate a real life experience.

Dates	Venue	Investment
To be agreed	At your own venue	$408.89vip

Application and Further Enquiries

Commercial Training (CT) Department:

- Head Quarter – Station Officer CT on ph: 3312877 ext 138, fax: 3310621 or email: stocommercial.nfa@gmail.com
- Central – Sub Officer CT Central Eastern on ph: 3312877, fax: 3310621 or email: soctcentral.nfa@gmail.com
- West – Sub Officer CT West on ph: 666 0211, fax: 666 9113 or email: soctwest.nfa@gmail.com
- North – Sub Officer CT North on ph: 8811333, fax: 8811314 or email: soctnorth.nfa@gmail.com

NFA is the sole authority for fire safety requirements and training in accordance with the HSAW (General Workplace Conditions) Regulation 2003 – Part 9 Section 34 (4) (c).

Ministry of Education Recognition No: 8282

This training is grant claimable under the Training Productivity Authority of Fiji (TPAF).