(3) The term of co-opted members of the Council shall be 3 years from the first scheduled meeting after the date of appointment. The term of a co-opted member may be renewed by the Council for a maximum of 2 additional terms.

[FNU 17] Failure to make nominations in accordance to section 14(2)

17 If an entity empowered to make nominations to the Minister under section 14(2) does not make any nomination by the date fixed by the Minister by a reminder letter given to the entity, the Minister, in consultation with the Council, may appoint to the Council any member of the entity in place of the nominated member.

[FNU 18] Failure to elect elected members

18 If a group permitted to elect elected members under section 15(2) does not elect any or enough persons or elected members by a date fixed by the Council by written notice given to the group, the Minister, on the advice of the Council, may appoint equal number of such members.

[FNU 19] Dealing with casual vacancy

19 (1) If a casual vacancy arises in the office of an appointed member, the Minister shall appoint a replacement from the list of nominees called by the Minister from the group from which the departing member was appointed.

(2) If a casual vacancy arises in the office of an elected member and the elected member was elected by a ballot under section 15(2), the Council must appoint to the office the one person, if any, who received the highest number of votes of all the candidates who were not elected if the candidate is willing to perform the functions of a member.

(3) A person appointed or elected to fill a casual vacancy in the office of a member is appointed or elected for the balance of the term of office of the person's predecessor.

[FNU 20] Ineligibility for membership of Council

20 A person is not eligible to become a co-opted, appointed or elected member if—

- (a) the person was duly declared bankrupt by the courts, or
- (b) the person has been duly convicted and jailed for a period exceeding 9 months.

[FNU 21] Vacation of office

21 The office of an appointed, elected or co-opted member becomes vacant, if—

- (a) the member dies; or
- (b) for the co-opted or elected member the member ceases to be an eligible person for the entity that elected or appointed the person; or
- (c) the member is absent without the Council's leave and without reasonable excuse from every meeting of the Council in a period of 9 months; or
- (d) the member becomes an official member; or
- (e) the member resigns from office by signed written notice given to the appointing authority if an appointed member or to the chairperson of the Council if an elected or a co-opted member, or
- (f) the member is removed from office under section 23.

[FNU 22] Members function and obligations

22 (1) A member has the function of ensuring the Council performs its functions and exercises its powers appropriately, effectively and efficiently.

(2) In performing the function, a member is obliged to each of the following—

- (a) act honestly and in the best interests of the University;
- (b) exercise reasonable skill, care and diligence;
- (c) disclose to the Council any conflict that may arise between the member's personal interests and the interests of the University;

- (d) not make improper use of his or her position as a member, or of information acquired because of his or her position as a member, to gain, directly or indirectly, an advantage for the member or another person.

(3) All members of the Council and of any board or committee appointed by the Council, shall fully declare to the Council any financial or other interest with which they may at any time directly or indirectly be connected and shall, unless the Council so decides, refrain from voting at meetings of the Council or of such board or committee on any matter related thereto provided that such interest, if so declared, shall not disqualify such member for the purpose of constituting a quorum.

[subs (3) insrt Decree 58 of 2010 s 10, opn 29 Nov 2010]

(4) Any member of the Council or of a board or committee thereof and any employee of the Council who discloses any material information acquired in the course of his or her obligations under this Act (other than as lawfully required to do so) commits an offence.

[subs (4) insrt Decree 58 of 2010 s 10, opn 29 Nov 2010]

[s 22 am Decree 58 of 2010 s 3, opn 29 Nov 2010]

[FNU 23] Council may remove a member from office

23 (1) Any member of the Council, other than the members of the staff of the University, may be removed from office by the Council for good cause.

(2) "Good cause" when used in reference to removal from office means—

- (a) the member has not complied with section 22(2);
- (b) conviction for any offence which the Council considers to be such as to render the person concerned unfit for the execution of the duties of his or her office; or
- (c) any physical or mental incapacity which the Council considers to be such as to render the person concerned unfit to continue to hold his or her office or
- (d) conduct of a nature which the Council considers to be such as to render the person concerned unfit to continue to hold his or her office; or
- (e) conduct which the Council considers to be such as to constitute failure or inability of the person concerned to perform the duties of his or her office or to comply with the conditions of his or her office.

(3) To remove a person as a member of the Council, a two-thirds majority of the Council members should agree to the removal in a duly constituted meeting called where the removal of the member is listed as an agenda item and where the member is given a reasonable opportunity to be heard by the Council before the vote on the matter.

(4) If the Council decides to remove a member from office under subsection (3), the Council must as soon as practicable but no later than 14 days from the date of the decision, inform the appointing authority if the member was an appointed member, or the body electing the member if the member was an elected member.

[FNU 24] Meetings of the Council

24 (1) The Chancellor must preside at meetings of the Council. In the absence of the Chancellor from a meeting of the Council or if the office is vacant, the Deputy Chancellor shall preside at the meeting. If both, the Chancellor and the Deputy Chancellor are absent from a meeting of the Council, or the offices are vacant, the members present must elect a member to preside at the meeting.

[FNU 25] Conduct of meetings

25 (1) A quorum exists at a meeting of the Council if at least half its members, of which at least 2 shall be official members, at least 5 shall be appointed members and at least 2 shall be elected members, are present.

(2) The Council may otherwise regulate its proceedings as it considers appropriate.

(3) No decision of the Council or act done in pursuance to section 25(1) and (2) shall be invalid by reason of vacancy in the office of a member of the Council or on the ground of any defect in the election, nomination or appointment of any such member.

[FNU 26] Protection of members of the Council

26 (1) No action, suit or other proceeding shall be instituted against any member of the Council personally in respect of any act done in good faith or made by the member in execution or intended execution of any function of the Council under this Act.

(2) Where a member of the Council is exempt from liability for an act or omission by reason only of subsection (1), the Council shall be liable for the act or omission to the extent that it would be if the member were the Council's employee or agent.

PART 6 — MISCELLANEOUS

[FNU 40] Making of University regulations

40 Subject to the provisions of this Act and any other law in Fiji, the Council may make regulations for the efficient management and good governance of the academic, administrative and financial affairs of the University.

[FNU 40A] Regulations

40A The Minister on the advice of the Council may make regulations for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act.

[s 40A insrt Decree 58 of 2010 s 16, opn 29 Nov 2010]

[FNU 41] Non-discrimination

41 No person shall be discriminated against based on his or her religion, ethnic, gender or political alliance, to prevent such person from being entitled to be admitted as a member, professor, teacher or student of the University, or to hold office therein, or to graduate or to hold any advantage or privilege attached.

[FNU 42] Academic freedom

42 (1) The Council must ensure that academic freedom is preserved and enhanced at the University.

(2) “Academic freedom” means the freedom of the University, within the law, including the best traditions of the academia and the highest ethical standards—

- (a) to employ and to determine the terms and conditions of its staff;
- (b) for the University to regulate the content of subjects taught at the University, and to determine the mode of teaching and assessment that best promotes learning; and
- (c) for staff and students to question and test received wisdom, to put forward new ideas and to state controversial or unpopular opinions within the best traditions of advancing such ideas, and to engage in research and publication.

(3) In the performance of their functions, the Council and management of the University, as well as policy, and authorities and agents of the State, shall always act in ways that are consistent with promoting academic freedom at the University.

PART 7 — LEVY ORDER AND APPRENTICES

[Pt 7 insrt Decree 58 of 2010 s 17, opn 29 Nov 2010]

[FNU 42A] Levy Order

42A (1) The Minister may, from time to time, after consultation with the Council make, in such form and containing such details (including provisions for the payment of interest) as he or she may determine, a Levy Order imposing a Levy on any employer or class of employers and the amount payable under any such Levy Order shall be paid to the Council at the time and in the manner specified in such Levy Order, and a Levy Order may make different provisions in relation to different classes of employers.

(2) The Minister may from time to time, after consultation with the Council, revoke or amend a Levy Order.

(3) The Council shall ensure that the University always has in place an effective system for collecting the amount payable under a Levy Order.

(4) The amount payable under a Levy Order shall be deemed to be a simple contract debt due from the employer and shall be recoverable accordingly by the Council in any court.

(5) Proceedings under subsection (4) may be instituted by—

(a) the Vice-Chancellor; or

(b) by any servant or agent of the Council authorised by the Vice-Chancellor in writing for that purpose—

and the Vice-Chancellor or any such servant or agent may conduct proceedings whether or not he or she was the person instituting them.

(6) Any employer who fails to pay to the Council any amount payable as a Levy Order at the time and in the manner specified is guilty of an offence.

[s 42A insrt Decree 58 of 2010 s 18, opn 29 Nov 2010]

[FNU 42B] Consequences upon failure to comply with the Levy Order

42B (1) The Council may require an employer or class of employers to furnish such returns, provide such information and keep such records as shall be approved by it to produce them for inspection by or on behalf of the Council to enable it carry out its functions under this Act.

(2) Any employer who refuses or fails to comply without reasonable cause with any requirement of the Council made under subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence.

(3) Any employer who—

(a) knowingly or recklessly furnishes, in pursuance of any requirement made under subsection (1), any return, information or record which is false in a material particular; or

(b) wilfully makes a false entry in any record required to be produced and kept under the provisions of this Act or, with intent to deceive, makes use of any such entry which he or she knows to be false;

is guilty of an offence.

(4) Where an offence has been committed under the provisions of subsection (3) by an employer (other than the Government) being a body corporate, every officer, including any director, manager, secretary or other servant and any other person purporting to act in such capacity of the employer, who knowingly and wilfully authorised or permitted the contravention mentioned in this section shall, in addition to the employer, be guilty of an offence and on conviction liable to the same fine.

(5) Where an offence has been committed under the provisions of subsection (3) by an employer being the Government, every public officer who furnishes the returns, provides the information or keeps the records required by subsection (1), or any person or persons purporting to do so, who knowingly and wilfully authorised or permitted the contravention mentioned in this section is guilty of an offence.

[s 42B insrt Decree 58 of 2010 s 19, opn 29 Nov 2010]

[FNU 42C] Apprenticeship and training

42C The Minister may after consultation with the Council make orders, known as Training Orders regulating the employment, training and minimum remuneration of apprentices in any particular trade or occupation and prescribing forms, fees, matters and things which are required, permitted or contemplated by this Part to be prescribed which appear to the Minister to be necessary or convenient for the purpose of more effectively carrying out the objects and operation of this Part.

[s 42C insrt Decree 58 of 2010 s 20, opn 29 Nov 2010]

[FNU 42D] Apprentices

42D (1) Any apprentice in any particular trade or occupation shall, notwithstanding any agreement to the contrary, be deemed to be employed under an agreement made between the Vice-Chancellor or his or her nominee on behalf of the Council and—

- (a) the apprentice or (if he or she is under 18 years of age) a parent, guardian or a person in loco parentis to him or her; and
- (b) the employer whereby the employer agrees to employ the apprentice, and the apprentice agrees to serve the employer, for the period of training specified in the rules.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), the Council may where appropriate—

- (a) release any employer or apprentice from their respective obligations to each other; or
- (b) transfer the benefits and obligations of the employer under any apprenticeship agreement to another employer who is willing to undertake them.

[s 42D insrt Decree 58 of 2010 s 21, opn 29 Nov 2010]

[FNU 42E] Arrangements where apprentice not engaged

42E The Council may make such arrangements as it thinks proper for safeguarding the continued training of any apprentice if such person is not, for any reason other than his or her own wilful default, engaged in employment in his or her particular trade or occupation.

[s 42E insrt Decree 58 of 2010 s 22, opn 29 Nov 2010]

[FNU 42F] Exemptions

42F The Council may, if it deems it necessary in any particular case, in regard to the employment of an apprentice, exempt any person from any of the provisions of any rule, order or regulation made by the Council thereunder.

[s 42F insrt Decree 58 of 2010 s 23, opn 29 Nov 2010]

[FNU 42G] Training Orders for other persons

42G The Minister may, after consultation with the Council from time to time make orders known as Training Orders in relation to or regulating the employment and training of persons other than apprentices, and may make rules prescribing forms, fees, matters and things which appear to the Minister to be necessary or convenient for the purpose of more effectively carrying out the objects and operation of this Part.

[s 42G insrt Decree 58 of 2010 s 24, opn 29 Nov 2010]

[FNU 42H] Obstruction

42H Any person who does any act or thing for the purpose either of preventing or obstructing the Council, or any employer from carrying out any arrangement made by the Council under the provisions of this Act is guilty of an offence.

[s 42h insrt Decree 58 of 2010 s 25, opn 29 Nov 2010]

[FNU 42I] Authorised officers

42I (1) The University may appoint such persons as it thinks necessary, to be authorised officers for all or any of the purposes of this Part.

(2) An authorised officer may—

- (a) at any reasonable time enter any premises in which he or she has reasonable cause to believe a particular trade or occupation is carried out, or where any apprentice is or has within the previous 6 months been or is believed to have been employed and examine the methods used on such premises in the training of apprentices and give advice in such training;
- (b) with respect to matters under section 21, examine any person whom he or she finds on premises entered under the provisions of paragraph (a) and any apprentice and require any such person or apprentice to appear before him or her at a reasonable time and place and to answer such questions as he or she may put touching such matters, provided that no person shall be required by virtue of this subsection to answer any questions or to give any evidence tending to incriminate himself or herself;
- (c) at any reasonable time enter any premises and examine the methods used in the training of any person whom he or she finds employed in a trade or occupation the subject of a training order made under the provisions of section 25 and give advice in such training;
- (d) require the production or delivery up of any of the records required to be kept by an employer by or under the provisions of this Act or of any orders or regulations made thereunder, and to examine and make extracts from, and copies of, any such records.

(3) An authorised officer may, by notice in writing served on any employer, or in respect of whom a Levy Order has been made or carrying on a designated trade or occupation or having a person in training or employing an apprentice, require him or her to keep and to furnish to him or her within a time or times and in a manner to be specified, such report or particulars as shall be specified with respect to the persons or any apprentice employed by him or her.

(4) An authorised officer shall be supplied by the Council with a certificate of his or her appointment and when exercising or seeking to exercise any of the powers lawfully conferred on him or her shall produce the certificate on demand.

(5) Any person who—

- (a) refuses or fails to comply without reasonable cause with any requirement made by an authorised officer under the provisions of this Act; or
- (b) obstructs or hinders an authorised officer in the exercise of his or her powers under the provisions of this Act,
- is guilty of an offence.
