- b. To outline the roles and responsibilities of supervisors and students in the context of the HDR supervision arrangement.

3.0 Rules for Appointing Supervisors

3.1 FNU rules for HDR supervision are:

- a. All FNU HDR students must have a minimum of two supervisors. This includes students enrolled or engaged in a collaborative arrangement involving FNU and one or more other organisations/ institutions/ partners.
- b. To be a senior supervisor, one must have supervised at least one PhD to completion and completed a PhD to be a senior supervisor for Masters by Research.
- c. To be the second supervisor, an Early Career Researcher with a completed PhD, and/or completed a FNU approved supervisor training programme.
- d. To be a co-supervisor, one must have supervised at least one PhD to completion.

3.2 The appointment of a supervisor will be approved by OPVCR and College Deans.

4.0 Roles and Responsibilities of Supervisors

4.1 All supervisors appointed to the HDR supervisory team are required to:

- a. Adhere to the FNU research policies and procedures.
- b. Adhere to HDR Supervisor and Student Code of Practice.

Principal Supervisor:

The principal supervisor is responsible for undertaking primary administrative and academic responsibility for the student, including, but not limited to:

- a. Maintaining a schedule of regular contact with the student, whether in person or via technology. Weekly or fortnightly meetings are recommended.
- b. Supervisors must meet with the candidate to discuss their academic progress weekly or fortnightly and keep a record of the discussions in the HDR Supervisor & Candidate Meeting Log Form.
- c. Establishing protocols for the specific contribution each supervisor will make to the student's research.
- d. Providing regular advice and constructive feedback to the student (normally within two weeks for chapter-length drafts and no longer than one month for longer pieces of work).
- e. Responding to changes to enrolment (including leave, field work, milestones reviews, examination, and completion of the project).

Associate Supervisor/Second Supervisor/ Co-supervisor

- a. The associate supervisor/second supervisor is responsible for working with the main supervisor to provide academic responsibility for supervising the student's research project.

External Supervisor (if required)

- a. The external supervisor is responsible for working with the main supervisor, co-supervising the FNU HDR student on the basis of mutual cooperation between individuals across institutions and organisations.
- b. The external supervisor will only act as a second or co-supervisor.

5.0 Supervision Workload

The supervisors are entitled to factor in the following hours to their academic workload for HDR supervision.

For full-time HDR candidate:

- a. Principal supervisor is allocated 1 hour per week.
- b. Second supervisor is allocated 30 minutes per week.

For part-time HDR candidate:

- a. Principal supervisor is allocated 30 minutes per week.
- b. Second supervisor is allocated 15 minutes per week.

6.0 Roles and Responsibilities of Students

Students are responsible for:

- a. Meeting any conditions of their enrolment at FNU; for the quality and integrity of their research, whether in the draft or final form; and for their thesis (or equivalent research component) ultimately submitted for examination.
- b. Completing any required coursework/professional development training and undertaking FNU's compulsory activities within the scheduled time-frame.
- c. Complying with all FNU research policies and procedures.
- d. Using the University's resources and facilities in a responsible way, undertaking any necessary training in order to access and use those resources and facilities safely, in accordance with the University's Occupational Health and Safety (OH&S) requirements.
- e. Responding to all reasonable requests from their supervisor/s for regular written work, interim reports, or research results, including the final draft of the thesis, submitting the requested work to the supervisor/s within two weeks for chapter-length drafts and by negotiation for longer pieces (normally no later than one month from the date of the request).
- f. Filling in HDR Supervisors and Candidate Meeting Log Form at the end of each meeting with their supervisors.
