1	A Pocket Guide for Cold Water Survival 	Author: International Maritime Organization Edition: 2012 Description: This guidance is intended primarily for seafarers. It provides information which will help you if you are unlucky enough to fall into cold water, or have to enter it in an emergency, or have to use survival craft in cold conditions. It also provides information which will help seafarers, trained as first-aid providers, to treat those rescued from cold conditions. This guide briefly examines the hazards of exposure to the cold that may endanger life, and provides advice based on the latest medical and scientific opinion on how to prevent or minimize those dangers. Location- FMA [1 copy] OPAC Link: Click Here	CEST
2	The Stranger 	Author: Albert Camus Description: With the intrigue of a psychological thriller, Camus's masterpiece gives us the story of an ordinary man unwittingly drawn into a senseless murder on an Algerian beach. Behind the intrigue, Camus explores what he termed the nakedness of man faced with the absurd and describes the condition of reckless alienation and spiritual exhaustion that characterized so much of twentieth-century life.	CHE

23	Coup: Reflections on the Political Crisis in Fiji: Reflection on the Political Crisis in Fiji 	Editor: Brij V. Lal with Michael Pretes Description: May 19, 2000. Fiji's democratically elected multiracial government is hijacked by a group of armed gunmen led by George Speight and held hostage for fifty days. Suva, the capital, is torched and looted as Speight's supporters gather on the lawns of the parliamentary complex, dancing, cooking food, celebrating the purported abrogation of the constitution that brought the Peoples' Coalition government to power. The country is plunged into darkness yet again, enduring the pain of three coups in a period of just thirteen years. This book gathers a handful of memoirs of those tragic events in Fiji. They were written while the gun was still smoking; personal, anguished reactions of people from all walks of life. Location- Lautoka [1 copy] OPAC Link: Click Here	CHE

42	Sevens Heaven: The Beautiful Chaos of Fiji's Olympic Dream 	Author: Ben Ryan Description: The incredible story of how one man inspired a nation of underdogs to achieve sporting greatness. It is late summer 2013. Ben Ryan, a red-haired, 40-something, spectacle-wearing Englishman, is given 20 minutes to decide whether he wants to coach Fiji's rugby sevens team, with the aim of taking them to the nation's first-ever Olympic medal. He has never been to Fiji. There has been no discussion of contracts or salary. But he knows that no one plays rugby like the men from these isolated Pacific islands, just as no one plays football like the kids from the Brazilian favelas, or no one runs as fast as the boys and girls from Jamaica's boondocks. He knows too that no other rugby nation has so little - no money and no resources, only basic equipment, and a long, sad history of losing its most gifted players to richer, greedier nations. Location- Lautoka [1 copy] OPAC Link: Click Here	CHE
43	Voyagers: The Settlement of the Pacific 	Author: Nicholas Thomas Description: Thousands of islands, inhabited by a multitude of different peoples, are scattered across the vastness of the Pacific. The first European explorers to visit Oceania, from the sixteenth century on, were astounded and perplexed to find populations thriving so many miles from the nearest continents. Who were these people? Where did they come from? And how were they able to reach islands dispersed over such immense tracts of ocean? Location- Lautoka [1 copy] OPAC Link: Click Here	CHE

44	The Fifth Child 	Author: Doris Lessing Description: A self-satisfied couple intent on raising a happy family is shocked by the birth of an abnormal and brutal fifth child. Doris Lessing's contemporary gothic horror story—centered on the birth of a baby who seems less than human—probes society's unwillingness to recognize its own brutality. Harriet and David Lovatt, parents of four children, have created an idyll of domestic bliss in defiance of the social trends of late 1960s England. While around them crime and unrest surge, the Lovatts are certain that their old-fashioned contentment can protect them from the world outside—until the birth of their fifth baby. Gruesomely goblin-like in appearance, insatiably hungry, abnormally strong, and violent, Ben has nothing innocent or infant-like about him. Location- Lautoka [1 copy] OPAC Link: Click Here	CHE
45	Islanders: The Pacific in the Age of Empire 	Author: Nicholas Thomas Description: This compelling book explores the lived experience of empire in the Pacific, the last region to be contacted and colonized by Europeans following the great voyages of Captain Cook. Unlike conventional accounts that emphasize confrontation and the destruction of indigenous cultures, Islanders reveals there was gain as well as loss, survival as well as suffering, and invention as well as exploitation. Location- Lautoka [1 copy] OPAC Link: Click Here	CHE

But even a repressive state cannot obliterate desire neither offred's nor that of the two men on which her future hangs. Location- Lautoka [1 copy] OPAC Link: Click Here	CHE
47	Modern Auditing and Assurance Services 	Author: Philomena Leung, Paul Coram, Barry J. Cooper, Peter Richardson Edition: 6th Description: The practice of auditing is explained in the context of auditing theory, concepts, and current practice, with appropriate reference to the Australian auditing standards and the respective international standards on auditing. Auditors play a vital role in the current economic environment, with increasing responsibility for ensuring market integrity. The development of auditing practice reflects how the accounting profession responds to the complex demands of information, competition, corporate failures, and technology. Auditing continues to evolve in response to the changing business and regulatory landscape to maintain its relevance and importance. Location- Ba [1 copy] OPAC Link: Click Here	CBHTS
