VICE-CHANCELLOR'S WEEKLY MESSAGE

8 January 2024

Ni Sa Bula Vinaka to you all!

We are now into the second week of 2024 and I believe most of us are taking some much-needed rest; or slowly resuming work.

As I had highlighted earlier, our 2023 journey as a university has been defined by the dedication and passion of our faculties, the enthusiasm of our students and the unwavering support of our staff and stakeholders. Together we worked and achieved!

I am immensely proud of our collective accomplishments and contributions. Together we reached milestones, broke barriers, and transcended boundaries. We created an environment that fostered learning, education, research, and growth. Together we have done very well!

As we begin to prepare for another academic year, let us embrace the promise of a new beginning, fresh opportunities, and endless possibilities. We will set new goals, dream bigger dreams, commit to academic prowess, and work diligently towards our goals.

Let us reaffirm our commitment to fostering a culture of care, honesty, accountability, service, and excellence as the Fiji National University.

I am excited to share our 2024-2026 strategic vision for the University with you all over the coming weeks and I look forward to your continued support. The Senior Management team goes for its January strategic retreat on the 17th to confirm section plans for 2024.

Please do well to actively contribute as academic and professional services staff to our ongoing Enrolment Drive campaign for Semester 1, 2024!

I acknowledge all those who have been working diligently over the holidays to attend to our prospective and returning students.

I also want to encourage those who are about to embark on various enrolment campaigns to continue promoting the Fiji National University as the quality, affordable and accessible tertiary education provider for every student.

Again, warm welcome to the new year, we will in Unity, Prevail!

Be Blessed!

Vinaka
