

EID

M U B A R A K

Dear All,

As the Vice-Chancellor of the Fiji National University, it brings me immense joy to extend heartfelt Eid greetings to all members of our esteemed institution and the wider community. Eid al-Fitr is a time of joy, reflection, and unity, marking the end of the holy month of Ramadan.

To our Muslim students, staff, and their families, I extend my warmest wishes for a blessed Eid filled with happiness, peace, and prosperity. May this auspicious occasion renew your spirits and strengthen your faith as you gather with loved ones to celebrate the blessings of Ramadan and the joy of Eid.

Eid is a time of reflection, gratitude, and joy. It marks the culmination of a month-long journey of self-discipline, spiritual growth, and acts of kindness. As we come together to celebrate the end of Ramadan, let us remember the values it instils within us – compassion, empathy, and unity.

In the spirit of inclusivity and diversity that defines our university, let us embrace this opportunity to come together, regardless of our backgrounds or beliefs, to share in the joy and friendship that Eid brings. May this special day inspire us to foster greater understanding, compassion, and solidarity within our FNU family and beyond.

As we mark this joyous occasion, let us also remember those who are less fortunate and extend a helping hand to those in need, embodying the true essence of Eid.

Eid Mubarak to you all and may the blessings of this holy day fill your hearts with peace and happiness.

Professor Unaisi Nabobo-Baba

Vice-Chancellor

Fiji National University