“He is not here; he has risen, just as he said.” – Matthew 28:6 (NIV)

Easter is a time of deep reflection, renewal, and above all, hope. It reminds us that even in moments of great challenge, light and life prevail. The resurrection of Christ is a powerful testament to love, sacrifice, and the unwavering belief in a better tomorrow.

At Fiji National University, these values are at the heart of all we do. As a national institution, we are committed to transforming lives through education, service, and opportunity. This Easter, we are reminded of our shared responsibility to lift others, especially those who are most in need.

We continue to extend this mission beyond the classroom through the FNU Foundation. The Foundation plays a vital role in supporting students who face significant barriers— due to circumstance or society, and those who need a helping hand to continue their journey. Whether it is through scholarships or special initiatives, the Foundation is a channel of compassion and real change.

Just as Easter teaches us about grace, healing, and new beginnings, so too does our work at FNU offer a path forward for many who feel left behind. We believe that every student deserves the chance to rise above their challenges and fulfil their potential, and with the support of our wider university community, we are making that possible—one student at a time.

As part of our Easter celebrations, please note that tomorrow, Thursday, will be a half-day for ALL STAFF to allow time to prepare for and spend the holiday with your loved ones.

On behalf of the University’s leadership, I wish all our students, staff, alumni, and partners a joyful and meaningful Easter. May this sacred season renew your spirit and inspire you to continue spreading kindness, hope, and light wherever you go.

Vinaka vakalevu, and Happy Easter!
