

VICE-CHANCELLOR'S EID MESSAGE

EID MUBARAK

Dear All,

As the crescent moon graces the night sky, signalling the joyous arrival of Eid-ul-Fitr, I extend my warmest greetings to our Muslim community and all who celebrate this special occasion.

Eid is a time of reflection, gratitude, and unity. It marks the end of a month devoted to faith, self-discipline, and acts of kindness. It reminds us of the values that bind us together—compassion, generosity, and togetherness.

At the Fiji National University, we take pride in our diverse and inclusive community. Just as Ramadan teaches patience and resilience, Eid highlights the importance of giving, the strength of family, and the joy of sharing with others.

In this spirit, let us continue to support one another, uplift those in need, and build a future grounded in mutual respect and understanding. This reflects our mission to serve the people, economy, and society of Fiji and the wider Pacific by delivering quality education, impactful research, meaningful engagement, and leadership in sustainability.

On behalf of the FNU family, may this Eid bring you and your loved one's peace, prosperity, and happiness. May your homes be filled with joy, your hearts with gratitude, and your lives with abundant blessings.

Eid Mubarak!
