Newly-enrolled students excited to begin tertiary learning at FNU

Fiji National University (FNU) students are counting down the weeks until they commence with their tertiary education journey. Below are profiles of three newly-enrolled students who share their views on why they chose FNU and their university ambitions.

Name: Manueli Valelala

Age: 19

Programme of study: Trade Diploma in Information Technology

College of Engineering, Science and Technology (CEST)

Why I chose FNU: I have family and friends who have graduated from FNU and through the skills and knowledge they gained they were able to become successful in their fields. I want to be the same and be the best in my field.

Career ambitions: After graduating, I hope to find employment in the IT field.

Name: Kelera Uluinamoto

Age: 19

Programme of study: Bachelor in Forestry,

College of Agriculture, Fisheries and Forestry (CAFF)

Why I chose FNU: I knew that FNU offered a good programme in this field. I know that the lecturers and staff at Koronivia Campus are well-trained and FNU produces good graduates. This is the reason why I joined FNU.

Career ambitions: When I graduate I want to become a forest conservator.

Name: Shamita Krishna

Age: 17

Programme of study: Trade Diploma in Office Administration

College of Business, Hospitality and Tourism Studies (CBHTS)

Why I chose FNU: I believe that FNU gives me the opportunity to study and excel in a field I am passionate in.

Career ambitions: I wish to be an Executive Assistant and be an asset to my organisation and be efficient in office management and records and documents processing that will contribute to the overall success of the company I will work for.
